James Martin Scholarship

John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School is pleased to offer the James Martin Scholarship which provides for the full remission of tuition fees for Years 7 to 12 for children of former or current Defence Force Personnel.

James Martin Scholarship - Awarded to 2 students in Year 7 from a school other than John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School. (Provides for 100% remission of tuition fees at JSRACS for Year 7 through to Year 12).

James Martin was born in Perth, Western Australia in June 1991. James was a student of John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School between the years 2004 – 2008 (inclusive).

James was dedicated to the School community of John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School. He demonstrated his ability and commitment in many sporting teams, most notably the First XI Cricket Team. James also competed eagerly and with success in the Associated and Catholic Colleges Cricket, Football and Athletics Teams over many years. James also played in the Champion School Soccer Team in 2008. Apart from sport, James demonstrated a passion for Music and annually showcased his musical talent and performed with his band in the School's 'Big Night In' Rock Concert. James' strength was his belief in the importance of contributing to the life of the community and he led this call by example.

James enlisted into the Australian Regular Army in January 2011 and completed recruit training in April 2011. In May 2011, he began his Initial Employment Training as a Combat Engineer. After completing this course in August 2011, James was posted to the 2nd Combat Engineer Regiment in Brisbane.

In June 2012, James deployed on his first operation, as part of the 3rd Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment Task Group. James was killed in action on 29 August 2012 when he and two other Australian soldiers were shot dead by a member of the Afghan National Army at a patrol base north of Tarin Kowt.

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

These scholarships are awarded at the discretion of the Principal by recommendation from the Scholarship Committee. Successful candidates must demonstrate a sound academic record together with the potential to make a positive contribution to the School.
